

May 1st, 2015
CONTACT: Dorotea Manuela
(617) 922-5744

MEDIA ADVISORY

MAY 1st DAY OF ACTIONS PLANNED FOR BOSTON, CHELSEA, EVERETT, REVERE TOMORROW, BEGINNING AT 12:30 PM

Boston May Day Committee (BMDC) to rally on Boston Common and march to support a higher minimum wage, Immigrant and worker's rights, the "Black Lives Matter" movement and funding the MBTA. (Actions are also planned for Chelsea, East Boston, Everett and Revere)

BOSTON – BMDC to rally on FRIDAY, MAY 1ST AT 12:30 PM on Boston Common before marching to Haymarket Station. Participants will then ride the MBTA's #111 Bus to Chelsea City Hall to rally and march to Glendale Park in Everett.

WHO: The Boston May Day Committee (BMDC)

WHAT: May 1st is celebrated around the world as International Workers Day to honor the struggle for workers' rights. On May 1st, 1886, and in the days that followed, Chicago police opened fire, attacking thousands of workers on strike to improve their working conditions among the demands was the forty-hour week. Every year since, workers across the globe have stood together to unite all of our working class struggles. "An injury to one is an injury to all!"

WHEN: FRIDAY, MAY 1ST, 12:30 P.M.

WHERE: Boston Common, Boston, MA.

CONTACT: Please RSVP to the Boston May Day Committee at: (617) 922-5744 or (857) 334-5084 and email to: info@bostonmayday.org.

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Visit www.BostonMayDay.org

###